

listen i dont want the new jersey version of the donot call law changed. it is understood that the fcc wants to make changes to it . well i dont want any changes. i dont need people calling me . if i need something i will shop and call them . it is very anoying to answer thease calls .you know the deal .